

An Introduction to the GDPR

On 25th May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will become law. If you hold information which falls within the scope of the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA), it will also fall within the scope of GDPR.

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels, equivalent to GCSE grades A*-C).
- One module with a multiple choice questionnaire.
- One CPD hour with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Accredited by Secured by Design and meets national Police approved standards.
- Optional narration of the module for accessibility.
- Additional resources for further learning and printable module for future reference.

Course objectives

This course covers the main changes that differentiate the new GDPR from the DPA and includes guidance to help you prepare for the change.

After completing the course you will:

1. Understand the changes that the introduction of the GDPR will bring to data storage and the handling and processing of information.
2. Understand the new role of Data Protection Officer (DPO).
3. Understand what a Privacy Impact Assessment is.
4. Recognise steps that you can take to help you prepare for the introduction of GDPR.

Why choose us?

“ I have recommended EduCare for Education to other schools in my area. The courses are very authoritative – they contain some brilliant modules which really help in the day-to-day running of the school. ”

Duggie Speight
Carleton Endowed School

